Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) Form 13: Further Exemption Claim

For a Self Build Dwelling, Residential Annex or Residential Extension when the development is altered

Please note: This form should only be used for submissions relating to CIL in England and in respect of a Liability Notice, or revised Liability Notice issued on or after 1 September 2019.

This form should only be used to re-claim an exemption for a self build dwelling, a residential annex or a residential extension when the development originally granted an exemption from CIL has, or is intended to be, altered in a way which changes the extent of the exemption previously granted. The earlier exemption must have been granted to the same person(s) now seeking a further relief.

Please complete the form using block capitals and black ink and send to the Collecting Authority.

See here for guidance on CIL generally, including claiming exemptions.

Self Build Declaration

Please tick ALL boxes

- I confirm that the details given are correct.
- I declare that this a "self build project" for purposes of the exemption set out within the regulations
- I declare that I will occupy the premises as my sole or main residence for a period of 3 years from completion of the property
- I declare that I will provide the required supporting documentation as set out in 'Self Build Exemption Claim Form - Part 2' within 6 months of completion of the property and I understand failure to do this will result in CIL becoming payable
- I declare the amount of de minimis State aid received in the last three years prior to submission of this application for relief is less than 200,000 Euro
- I understand the meaning of a 'disqualifying event' for CIL self build exemption and that where a disqualifying event occurs before or after commencement of development I must inform the collecting authority within 14 days.

'Self Build' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as all homes built or commissioned by individuals or groups of individuals for their own use, either by building the home on their own or working with builders.

'Completion' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as the issuing of a compliance certificate for this development issued under either regulation 17 (completion certificates) of the Building Regulations 2010 or section 51 of the Building Act 1984 (final certificates).
